

HOMEOPATHIC MODULES FOR SCIO USERS

Dr Shane Sarawan is a lecturer at the University of Johannesburg where he lectures 4th year homeopathy students on homeopathic philosophy and materia medica. He is passionate about complementary medicine and the integration of different modalities. He runs a busy practice in Fourways, Johannesburg, combining homeopathy with Chinese medicine and acupuncture.

Shane is offering a series of three homeopathic modules to enable the learner to interpret disease from a homeopathic perspective and formulate a strategy for treatment using the SCIO. Details of the first module are below.

Module 1 - Understanding Homeopathic Philosophy and Principles

An understanding of homeopathic philosophy and principles is essential to truly understanding disease and how it affects the person as a whole. This Module will provide the learner with a good understanding of homeopathic concepts of disease and wellness.

Module 2 - Major Miasms
